

Exercise 44

For the following exercises, use the vertical line test to determine which graphs show relations that are functions.

---

Solution

The relation is not a function because there are vertical lines that go through the curve more than once.

