Exercise 1

How do you solve an absolute value equation?

Solution

Start by isolating a term with the absolute value sign and then remove it by placing $\pm$ (read as "plus or minus") on the other side of the equation.