

Exercise 78

For the following exercises, use a graphing utility to determine whether each function is one-to-one.

$$f(x) = -3x^2 + x$$

Solution

The function is not one-to-one because there exists a horizontal line that passes through the graph more than once.

