

Exercise 2

Explain how to find the output variable in a word problem that uses a linear function.

Solution

The output variable is the one that depends on another variable.