

Exercise 3

Explain how to interpret the initial value in a word problem that uses a linear function.

Solution

The initial value is the number that the output variable starts at.