

Exercise 1

Describe what it means if there is a model breakdown when using a linear model.

Solution

A model breakdown means that the linear equation does not give accurate outputs outside a certain interval of input values.