

Exercise 3

What is extrapolation when using a linear model?

---

Solution

Extrapolation means that you're using the model to predict an output with an input that is outside the domain (or, alternatively, to predict an input with an output that is outside the range).