

Exercise 2

If a polynomial function is in factored form, what would be a good first step in order to determine the degree of the function?

Solution

Count the number of x 's you see in the factored form to determine the function's degree. For example,

$$f(x) = -3(x - 2)(x + 1)(5 - x)$$

has a degree of 3.