

Exercise 4

Explain how the factored form of the polynomial helps us in graphing it.

---

Solution

When you have the factored form of a polynomial, you can see where the graph crosses or touches the  $x$ -axis, depending on the multiplicities. You can also tell what the leading term is and tell what the end behavior of the graph is.