

Question 12

What information do you need to choose which equation or equations to use to solve a problem?

Solution

You need to know the knowns and unknowns to determine the appropriate equations to use.