Exercise 81

Simplifying Absolute Value Express the quantity without using absolute value.

$$|a - b|, \text{ where } a < b$$

Solution

Since $a < b$, $a - b$ is less than zero. The absolute value sign, then, can be removed only if a minus sign is placed in front of the quantity.

$$|a - b| = -(a - b) = b - a$$