

Exercise 1

Explain the difference between an absolute minimum and a local minimum.

---

Solution

The absolute minimum of a function  $f(x)$  is the lowest value that it takes over all  $x$ . A local minimum of a function  $f(x)$  is the smallest value it takes within a certain interval of  $x$ .